TO George SmajdaFROM Alphonse Iannuzzi DATE 4/25/81SUBJECT Surveillance of SCP

- 1205 Arrived at SCP Newark. Facility gates were locked. Front door to building was open, however, all other doors leading to yard were locked. No one appeared to be on site.
- 1210 Left SCP Newark.
- 1230 Arrived at SCP Carlstadt. Front gate was open. Two men from Faraci Bros. Fuel Oil were present on site. Rich Madison was driving a Faraci Fuel Oil tractor-trailer, license plate NJ TV-9016. Mr. Madison stated that Faraci presently (approximately 1 month ago) started to store vehicles on site. Some trailers may contain fuel oil while on site. Faraci is located in New Brunswick, NJ, (201) 247-9400.

Inspection of facility indicated 45 drums (55 gal.) on site. All drums contained hazardous waste labels. Information indicating contents of material was not on the labels. Three drums were uncapped. Horizontal storage tank T-105 north of office was leaking slightly from a seam on the bottom of the tank.

- 1245 Left SCP Carlstadt.
